

Aranui 5

Your home in the Islands

In the Island Tradition, our gracious staff continues the warmth and intimacy of the previous Aranui ships, welcoming passengers as part of their extended family.

You will quickly meet your fellow adventurers, and with three bars and a lounge, there is plenty of space to relax, get acquainted and share new discoveries.

The Aranui 5 was designed to accommodate 254 passengers, with 29 spacious Suites, 31 Deluxe and Superior Deluxe Staterooms, with balconies; 3 Junior Suites with or without balconies; and 40 Staterooms, all beautifully appointed with your well-being in mind. For the more adventurous, the shared space in C Class will accommodate 24 passengers.

The large, family-style dining room offers excellent French and Polynesian cuisine. Dress is island casual, no tux, just a fragrant tiare (flower) behind your ear. Air conditioning will keep you comfortable in the cabin and public areas. There are two passenger elevators.

Among the many ships cruising in the South Pacific, the Aranui 5 is unique in every way.

Polynesian casual best describes the atmosphere on board Aranui 5. From its relaxed and comfortable setting to a leisurely rhythm, it provides the opportunity to unwind and leave the hustle and bustle of everyday life behind. A variety of cultural enrichment classes are offered throughout the cruise, such as lessons in local dances or languages, the weaving of palm fronds or how to wear the island garb known as the pareo, providing immersion into and a greater knowledge of Polynesian traditions. Guest lecturers, experts in fields related to French Polynesia and primarily the Marquesas, such as history, culture, art or archeology, will give a more rounded understanding of the destination.

In keeping with the Polynesian experience, the entertainment remains traditional as well. The Aranui Band, consisting of staff and crew, and sometimes joined by guests, play Polynesian songs in the Veranda Bar. A couple of dinner events around the pool, gathering all of the passengers and crew for a communal feast, followed by performances and dancing under the stars, adds to the conviviality on board. Whether socializing in one of our three bars or curling up with a good book in the lounge, you will get to set the pace. From the Sky Bar on the highest deck, a 180 degree panoramic view looks out on to the horizon and the cranes and cargo holds below. A well-choreographed display of skill by our sailors, as they load and unload the freight, will keep you coming back for more of our own live reality television show. For complete relaxation, discover the healing hands of our Tahitian wellness therapist, offering various treatments at the Spa or if you still have energy left after exploring the islands, a gym is available. And should you wish to bring back with you a permanent traditional souvenir, a licensed Marquesan tattoo artist will provide a personalized design.
